

Final Report – Travel Grants China of the Max Weber Foundation

On the following pages we encourage you to document your experiences with the Travel Grants China. Your information is important for us to further develop the program.

A) General Information
Surname:	First Name:
The placements funded by the Travel Grants China of the Max Weber Foundation were used to result in <input type="checkbox"/> a dissertation <input type="checkbox"/> a habilitation thesis or a similar work <input type="checkbox"/> other (please specify)
Did you find the administrative counselling by the Central Office of the Max Weber Foundation to be satisfactory? <input type="checkbox"/> yes <input type="checkbox"/> partly <input type="checkbox"/> no Recommendations, also concerning the format of the program, the handling of applications and the setup/arrangement:
The Max Weber Foundation curates an online database (https://www.maxweberstiftung.de/themen/projektdatenbank.html) in which all projects and topics which were funded in the past are listed. Do you agree to your name being published on our website in relation to your project?*
<input type="checkbox"/> yes <input type="checkbox"/> no
(*I can revoke my consent for the above at any time in writing.)

B) Final Report
Concluding report about your research abroad and a final evaluation:

C) Interview
What kinds of challenges did you face while working on your transregional research project in China?
How did the exchange with the researchers at ERCCS in Beijing help you to further your research?

Why was it necessary for your research to be on-site in China?

During your stay, could you build new contacts within China and if so, which ones?

Would you recommend the Travel Grants China of the Max Weber Foundation? yes under conditions no

Notes:

Date

Handwritten signature

Thank you for your cooperation. We wish you a successful research!