

Deindustrialization: The Structural Transformation of Nord-Ovest and the Ruhr in Comparative Perspective

Programm

18 April 2018

14:00

Martin Baumeister & Christian Wicke, Introduction

14:30 – 16:30

Methodology and Historiography of the History of Deindustrialization

Chaired by: Stefan Berger

Giuseppe Berta (Bocconi University) & Angelo Pichierri (University of Turin)

Deindustrialization and Structural Change in Historical Perspective: The Case of Nord Ovest

Hans-Werner Wehling (University of Duisburg-Essen)

The Industrial Cultural Landscape of the Ruhr: Its Structures and Perspectives

Roberta Garruccio (University of Milano Bicocca)

An Oral History and Public History Project in Sesto San Giovanni

Stefan Moitra (German Mining Museum, Bochum)

Framing Structural Change in Life Stories: Oral Histories of Labor and Deindustrialization in the Ruhr

16:30 – 17:00

Coffee

17.00 – 18:30

Keynote Lecture by Marcel van der Linden (International Institute for Social History, Amsterdam)

19 April 2018

9:00 – 11:00

Labour Relations and Social Movements under Conditions of Deindustrialization

Chaired by: Stefano Musso

Salvatore Cominu (AASTER, Milan)

New Jobs, New Workers and Social Movements in De-industrialized Urban Environments

Manfred Wannöffel (Ruhr University Bochum)

Forms of Glocalization: Economic Globalization and Political Regulation: The Role of Labor Re-lations in the Process of Deindustrialization in the Ruhr

Gilda Zazzara (University of Venice)

Italian Trade Unions Facing Industrial Change: Restructuring, Metamorphosis, Decline, De-industrialization

Sebastian Voigt (Institute for Contemporary History, Munich-Berlin)

Structural Crisis? The Perception of Crises and the Debate about Structural Policy in the German Trade Union Confederation (DGB) in the 1970s

11:00 – 11:30

Coffee

11:30 – 13:30

Economic Policy Responses to Deindustrialization

Chaired by: Stefano Musso

Stefan Goch (Ruhr University Bochum)

Which Endogenous Potentials and which Exogenous Aids Promote the Management of Structural Change in the Region? Experiences from the Ruhr Area

Aldo Enrietti (ISMEL / University of Turin)

The Structural Changes in the Nord-Ovest Car Industry

Jan Kellershohn (Ruhr University Bochum)

From Coal and Steel to Education and Knowledge? Deindustrialization and Politics of Knowledge in the Ruhr Region

Marco Doria (University of Genoa)

Governing the City in Deindustrialization Processes: The Case of Genoa

13:30 – 15:00

Lunch

15:00 – 17:00

Environmental Histories of Deindustrialization

Chaired by: Christian Wicke

Frank Uekoetter (University of Birmingham)

Brownfield Green: Growing Environmentalism along the Ruhr

Gabriella Corona

The Case of Bagnoli: The Failure of Environmental Policies in Italy

Pia Eiringhaus (Ruhr University Bochum)

From Black to Green: A Critical Perspective on Post-industrial Representations of Region and Environment in the Ruhr Area

Salvatore Adorno, Francesco Martinico & Marisa Meli (University of Catania)

Decontamination and Redevelopment in Southern Italy: Historical, Legal and Urban Profiles

20 April 2018

9:00 – 11:00

Urban Histories of Deindustrialization

Chaired by: Martin Baumeister

Giorgio Bigatti (ISEC / Milan and Bocconi University)

Deindustrialization in the History of Milan

Christa Reicher (TU Dortmund University)

Urban Transformation of the Ruhr and the Influence on Urbanity

Sergio Scamuzzi (University of Turin)

The Role of Local Government for Economic Recovery and Urban Transformations: The Case of Turin

Sebastian Haumann (Darmstadt University of Technology)

Deindustrialization in Urban History: Current Research and Desiderata

11:00 – 11:30

Coffee

11:30 – 13:30

Historical Cultures of Deindustrialization

Chaired by: Christian Wicke

Jörn Rüsen (Institute for Advanced Studies in the Humanities, Essen)

A Cultural Reaction to the Deindustrialization in the Ruhr-area: Historical Museums

Roberto Tolaini (University of Genoa)

Deindustrialization between Memory and Reutilization: Some Cases in Nord-Ovest

Jana Golombek (German Mining Museum, Bochum)

Filling the Gap: The Aesthetic Transformation of the Deindustrializing Ruhr through Industrial Land Art since the 1960s

Anna Moro

Re-use of Former Industrial Areas and Cultural Issues: The Case of Sesto San Giovanni

13:30 – 15:00

Lunch

15:00 – 16:00

Stefan Berger and Stefano Musso: Concluding Discussion

16:00

End of Conference